SAUJANA HOTELS & RESORTS COMMEMORATES RAMADAN WITH AN IFTAR GIVEBACK SESSION WITH AT-TAQWA ORPHANAGE HOME PUCHONG

KUALA LUMPUR, 10 JUNE 2016 – In embracing the spirit of sharing and giving during the holy month of Ramadan, the management and associates of Saujana Hotels & Resorts reached out to the local community by holding a special Iftar session themed 'This One's for the Children' for over 70 underprivileged children from the At-Taqwa Orphanage Home Puchong.

Consisting of children aged between 2 and 17 years old, the welfare home provides care, education and guidance for orphans, abused, abandoned and underprivileged children in need.

The fast breaking event was held in Saujana Ballroom at The Saujana Hotel Kuala Lumpur where the team put together over 150 dishes in favourite Malaysian, Arabic, Japanese and Western flavours, similar to the offerings from the hotel's Ramadan buffet 'Juadah di bawah Sinaran Bintang' as a treat for the children.

To add to the merriment of the night, local TV host and radio announcer Azura Zainal was invited as the emcee for the night while the associates from Saujana Hotels & Resorts put on a musical performance especially for the children. The children from the home also put on a show of their own with a meaningful nasyid performance.

The associates at SHR also contributed to support these children by collecting donations which was presented to the home to help them in providing food, clothes, and other necessary provisions that the children may need.

Before concluding the event, representatives from the hotel as well as representatives from the Board of Directors of Saujana presented the children each with a school bag, goody bag and duit Raya on behalf of Saujana Hotels & Resorts. Over 100kgs of rice, cooking oil, noodles, fresh poultry, toys and other daily basic necessities were also contributed by Saujana to the home.

This event is a continuation of the yearly practices for Saujana Hotels & Resorts every Ramadan for the past 10 years.
