

DIANA CHAN

Diana Chan is a 31 year-old accountant by profession who grew up in Johor Bahru, Malaysia and moved to Melbourne, Australia to pursue her tertiary education at the age of 19.

Diana decided that after 4 years of working in Deloitte, she wanted to pursue her passion of making a career out of food and went on to compete in MasterChef Australia's 9th season.

Serving Malaysian street food and all about scratch cooking using family recipes passed down through generations. Chanteen started as a pop-up restaurant which ran for 6 months at HWKR in Melbourne CBD beginning February 2018.

Diana is currently filming a new food and travel showcasing everything about Asian cuisine.
