

SASHI CHELIAH

Based in the Star Unit of the Singapore Police Force for nearly a decade, Sashi was highly trained in special tactics and rescue operations. He enjoyed being both physically and mentally strong.

It is this strength and stamina that Sashi took into the MasterChef Australia kitchen in 2018 where he became known as a king of flavour.

Before winning MasterChef Australia, Sashi worked in the Justice Department in Melbourne and as a Prison Officer in a women's prison in South Australia.

The MasterChef Australia win will help kickstart Sashi's food dream to open an Indian and South East Asian fusion restaurant, serving authentic food.
